A Woman of the Town Makes Serious Charges Against a Special Policeman. .

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY.

A Big Beef Contract-In the Arena of Sports-Amusements-Ormsby Learns a Grip-Other

A Very Serious Charge. Lizzie Myers, a woman who keeps a house of ill repute at 107 North Ninth street, has made a serious charge against George Bruce, a special policeman and block watchman. The Myers woman asserts that Bruce makes a living by assessing the fallen women who live on Ninth and Tenth streets north of Douglas, $1 a week each, for watching their houses. To this assessment she says she would not object if Bruce paid any attention to his duty. She claims, however, that Bruce is almost constantly in her house, where there is a girl with whom he appears to be smitten. She says that he comes in almost every night at midnight and sometimes earlier and stays until morning. As a sample of the manner in which Bruce performs his duty the woman cites the fact that he was in her house in bed one night last week when some one came and kicked the front door down. The block watchman took the depredation coolly and did not even get out of bed to see what was being done, much less to catch the man who kicked the door in. The Myers woman alleges that Bruce wanted her to give him a key to the back door of the house so he could visit his inamorata at his pleasure. She refused to do this and asserts that he now gains admission to the room of his lady love through a back window. The woman says that this state of affairs has existed for some time, but she has been afraid to report the fact to the marshal lest Bruce might abuse her for so doing. The woman is a green German girl who does not seem capable of concocting a story like that she tells on Brace. Moreover, her story is pretty well substantiated by residents of Ninth street and even by members of the police force who are somewhat acquainted with Bruce's habits.

Marshal Cummings is highly indignant over the matter, and asserts that he will take steps to have Bruce released if the charges of the Myers woman are proven. Bruce has a wife who is lying seriously ill at his home near Hascall's park. The charges against him will be investigated.

AN IMPORTANT GATHERING.

The Presbyterian General Assembly to be Held in Omaha Next Month. One of the most important meetings ever held west of the Mississippi river will be the Presbyterian general assembly of the United States which will be held in Omaha commencing May 19 and continuing until May 30. The last meeting was held at Minneaplis a year ago, at which time Omaha was almost unanimously chosen as the place for the holding of the coming assembly. At that time the following committee was appointed to arrange for the coming meeting: Revs. Sexton, W. W. Harsha, W. J. Harsha, Boyd, Henderson, Hall, J. Harsha, Boyd, Henderson, Hall, Schaible and Wilson, of Omaha; Baird, of Plattsmouth; Curts, of Lincoln; Braden, of Fremont, and Prof. Hitchcock, of the state university. The lay members of the committee are: T. A. Creigh, J. L. Welshans, P. L. Perine, O. H. Bellon, O. F. Dayes, S. K. Spaulding. H. Ballou, O. F. Davis, S. K. Spaulding and Geo. E. Crosby, of Omana; Manley Rogers, of Fremont, and J. R. Clark, of

The proposition made by Omaha's representatives at the last general assembly was to furnish a suitable place for the hold-ing of the meetings of the assembly and the entertainment of a certain number of the commissioners as the delegates are called. The local committee has been very actively engaged in the work of preparing for this meeting. The exposition building has been secured for the meeting of the assembly, and steps taken to provide for the accommodation of as many of the visitors as possible. There are 275 pres-byteries in the United States, each of which is entitled to a representation of two in the assembly. The meeting will attract a large number of ministers and members of the denomination from all parts of the country. The committe ex-pects that at least one thousand visitors pects that at least one thousand visitors will be in the city during the meeting of the assembly. As the meeting will last over ten days it will give the visitors an excellent opportunity of becoming acquainted with Omaha and the great state of Nebraska, and the committee will make a special effort to induce the citizens to give to the meeting the attention that it deserves.

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS.

Yesterday's Ball Game - The New

Grounds-The League Game. About 500 lovers of the national game sat shivering in the grand stand at the new grounds of the Omaha association yesterday afternoon and witnessed a game between the Omaha club and the old Union Pacific nine. There was no satisfaction in the game for either the players or the spectators on account of the cold.

Salisbury and Bandle formed the battery for the Union Pacifics and played with considerable of their old time spirit. Goodenough pitched a fairly strong game for the Omahas and was caught by Krehmeyer. The game was devoid of any special features and resulted as follows: Union Paciles....... 0 0 0 0 4 0 3-7

THE NEW GROUNDS. The Omaha association has reason to be proud of their new grounds. They are well located and admirably arranged. The grand stand has a seating capocity of 1,500, with open seats at either end for as many more. Entrance is affected at the centre of the grand stand, making it much more convenient than the old stand for the spectators, both in reaching and leaving their seats. The grand stand and all of the seats are protected from the grounds by a high railing so that none but players are allowed on the grounds. A section of the grand stand has been set aside for the ladies and another supplied with tables for the representatives of the press. The grounds are level and roomy and altogether the linest in the west. Carriage ways have been provided at both the east and west sides of the grounds. A refreshment counter at the grand stand entrance is also a convenient feature that will doubtless be appreciated by the patrons of the game. The street car patrons of the game. The street car company has decided to place their turntable on Lake street, just opposite the grounds, so that they will be accessible by both the red and green car lines.

THE LEAGUE SEASON.

The Omaha club will open the championship season on Friday in a game with the Lincolns. There will be games on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Dave Rowe, the manager of the Lincolns, has Rowe, the manager of the Lincolns, has just returned from the east, and claims to have a team of giants. The Omaha team will be in good condition to meet them. They will have both forenoon and

THE OMAHA CLUB BANQUETED. The Des Moines Leader of Saturday contains the following account of a reception tendered the Omaha team in Des Moines on Friday evening last:

ception tendered the Omaha team in Des Moines on Friday evening last:

The Omaha base ball nine, a most thorough combination of gentlemen, was handsomely entertained last evening by the fire department. Believing that the boys had not received the attention due them, and anxious to sustain the reputation of Des Moines as a royal entertainer, Chief Ream Johnson, Assistant Chief Pike Lynch and others of the department, invited Messrs. Dwyer, Harter, Walsh and others of the Omaha team, to accept the hospitalities of the fire boys, an invitation which was promptly accepted. On reaching headquarters the Omaha gentlemen—and that they are genial and pleasant gentlemen will not for a moment be doubted—were entertained by music by Mr. Sprangler, Mr. Charles Cressy and Mr. Ream Johnson, while Pike Lynch, Hon. Dan Guthrie and several others regaled them with brief but nointed addresses on the sinfulness of prohibition. Dwyer and Harter, in a public address, announced their convictions, and then and there promised to give their influence and personal endeavors to reform Omaha from the errors of its way, at the same time pledging themselves to send Pierce back in a box in the event of attempting to enforce the prohibitory law in Omaha. Walsh, Healey and Harter assisted the boys in making the evening pleasurable to an extent unexpected. That Omaha was treated royally and entertained as gentlemen, cannot be gainsayed, since Chief Gailagher's recommendation goes a long way with Johnson and Lynch, for they were guests of bils at one time and resince Chief Gallagher's recommendation goes a long way with Johnson and Lynch, for they were guests of his at one time and received the best of treatment. The intellectual effort of Manager Dan Guthrie was in the midst of its glory when the telephone rang, and with one accord Omaha and Des Moines faded away to the court house, where a fire was raging in the sheriff's office. Omaha may be defeated by Des Moines, but the fact remains that a more entertaining lot the fact remains that a more entertaining lot of boys or more genial companions that the Nebraska nine has seldom been associated together. During the evening Bill Scott and Dude Murphy made addresses, but as fire escapes had been kindly furnished no one persihed during the delivery. Swift, Bader and Rourke will be entertained by the fire department this evening, while Rourke, Walsh and the balance of the club will be permitted to watch the procession pass in review.

eview. Michael McTighe was in attendance and assisted materially in the entertainment, and as Mike expects to remove soon to Omaha, the Leader recommends him to the best wishes and to most agreeable courtesies of the enterprising citizens of that brilliant city with a building boom and a splendid ball MANAGER BRYAN ILL.

Yesterday's issue of the Des Moines Leader contains the following: Manager Bryan, of the Des Moines ball club, was taken suddenly ill last evening with a bad hemorrhage of the lungs. At about 11 o'clock his case assumed such a serious aspect as to warrant a council of several physicians. It will be remembered that Mr. Bryan had a serious time with his lungs once before this season, and the present one was brought on by his being hit in the back by a ball from the pitcher's hands last week. He has been spit-ting blood ever since being hit, but had kept the fact to himself.

He Wants a Gymnasium. OMAHA, April 16 .- To the Editor of the BEE: For a long time I have lived in Omaha, and the longer I live here, the more I marvel that a city as large as Omaha has not one single gymnasium where the thousands of her people can develop the physical energies bestowed by God on man. Why, year after year, the men of the present age are degenerating more and more, and, in many cases, if it came to a test of strength, they would be ousted by the so-called gentler sex. And yet, this great city of 90,000 inhabitants cannot boast of a single legitimate gymnasium. Can you not bring your influence and that of the press bring your influence and that of the press to bear in forming a gymnasium with some of the responsible men of Omaha to von ean d confer a great benefit an the people of Omaha. WILLIAM WILLIAMS.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mr. Jean Baureis' Successful Benefit at Boyd's.

The largest audience which has attended any of the German performances at Boyd's, this season, greeted Mr. Baureis at his benefit last night. And yet it was no larger than the gentleman deserved. At the same time it was a deserving tribute to a gentleman who has been a credit to the German stage. It comprised the leading Germans of the city, and a large number of them was accompanied by many of the members of their families.

Mr. Baureis opened his second season here nearly a year ago. Since that time he has been manager of the German Comedy company, and at times has taken leading characters in the pieces produced, while at all times he has lent willing assistance when it was others time to appear in the lead. The success of this season, from an artistic stand point, such as it has been, has been largely due to Mr. Baureis. That this success has not been more pronounced has been because of the lack of encouragement which the enterprise received. If there had been a more liberal patronage, there had been a larger company, as there had also been a number of newer faces in the same. Under the circumstances Mr. Baureis has done all that could have been expected of him. This fact has been well appreciated, and led to the ovation last evening.

Mr. Baureis was warmly received when he appeared, and was immediately called to the foot-lights to receive a massive florar tribute, in the recesses of which re-posed two bottles of champagne and a package containing fifty dollars in bank notes of the crispest kind. These were the gift of a few of his intimate friends. The play was "Family Horner," pro-duced here for the first time, and kept the people in excellent humor throughout. Next Sunday Mr. Ulig will receive a

A BIG BEEF CONTRACT. W. A. Paxton Will Supply Steaks For

Pine Ridge Agency. Hon. W. A. Paxton has received official notice that his bid for supplying the Indians at Pine Ridge agency with beef has been accepted. The bids were opened by Commissioner Atkins on Thursday last. The bid of Mr. Paxton was accepted for supplying Pine Ridge agency with 4,500,000 pounds of beef in the hoof at $2.98 per hundred, or a total of $131,850. The cattle for this contract will be secured from Mr. Paxton's western ranches. The figure is considered a very good one and one that will yield much better profits than would be obtained by snipping the cattle to the eastern markets. Referring to the contract an old time resident of Omaha said to a reporter last night: That's the way Mr. Paxton got his start, in the beef contracting business It was over twenty years ago he was working with Jesse Lacy and John McCormick in the grocery business. Lacy and McCormick took Mr. Paxton into a beef contract with them and gave him his pay in cattle. Mr. Paxton kicked. He would as leave have his pay in white elephants. It was cattle or nothing, how-ever, and Mr. Paxton took the beeves. He profited by his deal and finally turned his entire attention to the business, and soon had a fortune."

Ormsby Says He Has Learned the Grip Officer Ormsby says he has learned the Odd Fellows' grip. Last night he observed, at a distance, a bartender of a Dodge street saloon take a man by the nape of the neck and the slack of the trousers and throw him out, afterward accelerating the fellow's sudden departure by kicking him two or three times. Subsequently he met the man on the street and told him to go home or he would arrest him for drunkenness. "You are either drunk or you are not much of a man to let a bartender throw you out of a place that way. Why didn't you make a complaint against him for assaulting you?" "Oh, he's a brother Odd Feliow," the man sniveled, "and I don't want to make a complaint against him. "Be gorra, it must have been the grip he was giving him," said the officer afterward when telling the story.

ROBBING A LAUNDRY. Lon Ling's Washee House Gutted by

Daylight Burglars. Two negroes, named E. Tyler and Wm. McKee, were arrested while fighting in front of Lon Ling's laundry on Tenth street between Douglas and Dodge streets, yesterday afternoon by Officer McCarty. They were taken to the police station, the officer accompanying the patrol wagon for the purpose of making the charge against them, as he had been quite charge against them, as he had been quite roughly used when making the arrest. While he was gone the laundry was entered through the back door and was fairly stripped of every piece of clean clothing to be found in it, over $200 worth being taken. The door was opened by a piece being cut of the panel with a chisel and the thief then reaching in and slipping the bolt.

The Chinese occupants of the house were all away, as they stated, at Sunday were all away, as they stated, at Sunday school. There was a scene of the greatest excitement when they returned and discovered the burglary. The air was blue with mingled Chinese and English profanity, and the teachings of the Sun-day school were evidently for the time being lost sight of.

The clothing consisted principally of ladies' underwear, and of the more expensive kind, as it was the property to a great extent of the "fancy" who live in that portion of the city.

It is believed by the police that the fight between the two negroes was a sham and a part of the game to get the officer on the beat away for a time. The colored hangers on around a saloon across the alley from the laundry are suspicioned of knowing a good deal about it, as it is deemed improbable that so many clothes could have been taken away from the laundry without some of the saloon people knowing it.

OMAHA, NEB., Mar. 5, 1887.
Carbolic Smoke Bail Co.—
Gentlemen—I take pleasure in recommending your remedy? the Carbolic Smoke Bail, for H believe it has SAVED MY LIVE. I have been iroubled for years with what was considered to be an incurable case of catarrh. Have been under treatment of several well known physicians or Omaha, but could receive no benefit from them. My condition continued to grow worso, until at last the disease began to EAT THROUGH THE MEMBRANE OF THE NOSE AND MOUTH making the broath very offenlive and causing several pleces of decayed bone to come from my mouth. I had given up all hopes of ever receiving a cure, but decided to try your remedy for a relief. I not only received relief but am happy to Statethar I am almost entirely cured.
